

Thank-you so much for your excellent care and attention when you treated my broken wrist at the Blaine 4th of July party. It was fractured and three parts were actually broken off the bone. I'm now the proud owner of a plate and eight screws in my left wrist. But, with your caution attention to my needs, I think I am better off with your help. Best regards, Phyllis Harber Murphy