Dear Fire and Rescue Personnel,

I would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to all of you for your support during the response to the Goodell Creek fire near our hydroelectric facilities in Newhalem and Diablo. In particular, we would like to thank: Darrell Riehl; David Comp; Jason Donnelly; John Geyleynse; John Hollstein; Joel Nielsen; Darren Bruya and Micah McConkey.

Your quick action and thorough work helped save critical infrastructure and ensured that Seattle City Light sustained minimal damages. It was a great team effort and a display of generous support from many in the local community.

On behalf of Seattle City Light, with our respect and gratitude, please accept the attached Certificate of Appreciation in recognition of your help during the wildfire crisis.

Sincerely,
